

Hello!

I am your Skelly and I am so excited to join your haunted house this spooky season!

I will be surprisingly spooky and promise to add the perfect touch of fright to your festivities.

Each night leading up to Halloween, I will move around to provide a good scare. But fear not! Though I may be a skeleton, my bones are full of festive spirit, ready to bring joy and fun to you and your family, not real scares.

So, when you have a minute, please give me a name. Something spooky, scary, or fun will do.

With the most bone-chilling cheers,

Your Skelly

P.S. Can't wait to share lots of laughs, spooks, and good times with you this Halloween! Let the haunting fun begin!
